

Santa Claus Headquarters

Until Dec. 25, On Account of Its Being so Abundantly Filled With Pretty Gifts, Will be at the Big Store

YES, Santa Claus has decided to be with us again this year. The Big Store, with its multitude of beautiful Christmas gifts, so appealed to him that he didn't hesitate a minute in the selection of his Nevada headquarters this year. And we have prepared for his coming as we have never prepared before. In every nook and corner of this great store are suggestions for holiday buying and holiday saving. Every department is aglow with the spirit of Christmas. In former years we have always provided for our customers the opportunity of selecting from the largest and most economically priced assortments of Christmas novelties ever shown in Nevada. This year, owing to the increased scope of our great and growing business and the addition of our new Basement Bazaar, we are able to offer even better values and much larger and more varied assortments. If you intend sending gifts to distant friends you should select them at once. If not, it is good policy anyway to select presents now while the showing is most complete.

MULES TO GET DAY OF REST

Suit Alleges Violation of Agreement in Making Beasts Labor on the Sabbath

Suit was begun yesterday by Frank J. Frey against the San Francisco Construction Company for working his mules on Sunday. According to the alleged agreement between the plaintiff and the Construction Company it was agreed that the former should furnish mules to the latter for use in their ditch construction operations, and that the latter should not work the beasts on the Sabbath day.

The cold statements of legal terminology do not state that this was arranged in deference to any religious scruples which the mules might entertain, or their owner either. It may be that the principle of one day's rest in seven for the mules had its basis in nothing more virtuous than a desire to conserve mule power. However that may be, Frey alleges on information and belief that in spite of stipulations to the contrary some of his mules were worked on the government day of rest and gladness for which violation the plaintiff prays for $50 damages.

Other clauses in the complaint filed yesterday morning in the office of County Clerk Fogg declare that there is a balance due on rental of wagons, harness and mules, exclusive of the Sunday question, the sum of $224.60 besides $375 for mules and harness alleged to have been held by the construction company. The total damages asked is $659.60.

FIRST GUN FIRED FOR MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP

use of street cars twelve feet in width and the board of county commissioners are hereby authorized to let or rent the said space for street car purposes to any company, or companies, firms, individuals or corporations for any term of years for an annual rental of not exceeding one per cent of the total cost of construction of said bridge the amount so received for the rental of said portion of said bridge to be paid to the county treasurer of Washoe county and by him placed in the said Washoe County bridge fund and to be applied in the payment of the interest on the bonds herein provided for.

From the language of the section it is clear that the legislature did not intend to give to the county commissioners the right to grant an exclusive franchise to any company, firm, individual or corporation to cross the bridge in question.

If the commissioners of Washoe county see fit to grant to the Nevada Transit Company a franchise to run over the bridge the commissioners should reserve for Washoe county the right to grant to any other railroad which might hereafter come into existence the same privilege.

As a space of but twelve feet in the center of the bridge is reserved by the act for railroad purposes the construction of more than one track is manifestly impracticable.

I have been asked for an opinion as to whether this difficulty could be eliminated by the county of Washoe, building, owning and maintaining a street railway track across the Virginia street bridge and renting the use of it right to travel over the same to different street railway companies.

I am of the opinion that Washoe county can build own and maintain such a track and can permit any number of companies, firms, individuals or corporations to run their cars over said track for an annual rental to each company, firm, individual or corporation of not exceeding one per cent of the actual total cost of construction of said bridge.

The question of the amount of rent to be charged any corporation, firm, company or individual making use of said space and said track is one which rests entirely within the discretion of the county commissioners of Washoe county provided that the limit of one per cent of the cost of construction of the Virginia street bridge is not exceeded. So also is the question of the term of years for which such privilege should be granted a matter resting entirely within the discretion of the commissioners of Washoe county. Respectfully submitted.

WM. B. CRAIG
District Attorney of Washoe County
State of Nevada

The fifth annual dinner of the Reno Dramatic Club was held last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight L. Dawson.

Twenty-five guests were assembled around the banquet table and partook of a fine seven-course dinner which had been prepared for the occasion by Mrs. Dawson. During the evening many appropriate toasts were responded to by prominent members of the club. It has been several years since the club has appeared before the footlights but each year the members assemble make merry and discuss old times on the stage.

ICE KING HAS ANSWERED CALL

David Dysart, Pioneer of Nevada and California, Falls Victim to Consumption

David Dysart, the ice king of the Sierra Nevada mountains, passed away at his home at Polaris yesterday morning at 3:30 o'clock. Consumption was the cause of death. He was a native of Delhi, N. Y., 57 years of age and to mourn his loss leaves a wife, three daughters and one son. The funeral services will be held from the home this afternoon and will be private. Tonight the remains will be shipped to Pacific Grove for interment.

Mr. Dysart was a member of the Masons, as well as the Elks. The news of his sudden death was received here yesterday morning. Mr. Dysart was well known not only in Reno but throughout Nevada. He spent his early manhood in this state as a brakeman in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, working with Conductor Michael Shields. He was one of the first to realize the importance of the ice industry in the mountains and was instrumental in forming several of the big companies. At the time of his death he was superintendent of the National Ice Company. In this business as well as many other enterprises he accumulated a snug fortune. His wealth, however, was a means to an end and not his sole ambition for he was liberal to a fault kind to strangers and always ready to extend the strong hand of fellowship to a friend in need.

Several months ago his health began to fail him. He was warned by his physicians to not expose himself needlessly but give no heed to it with the result that his ailment developed into consumption and his life was forfeit yesterday. Mr. Dysart was one of the noble pioneers of the great west, and his death will cause sorrow among the thousands who knew and loved him.

MRS. SOL LEVY ENTERTAINS

Her Guests in Honor of a Visiting Friend

The residence of Mrs. Sol Levy was a bower of holiday mood and Christmas anthems yesterday when she entertained her guest, Mrs. John C. Carson City, a reception and entertainment.

Mrs. Levy was assisted in the pleasant duties of receiving and introducing the visitors by Mrs. Frank and Miss Della Levy and Miss Doten, Miss Gibson and Miss Tosi.

Five hundred was the game indulged in at the card tables and it was not until a black bird came that the ladies realized the afternoon had passed so quickly but the homes shut out by a light rain spent every light moment in social chat, the guests departed home for a very pleasant and charming hostess and her guests of honor.

TUSCARORA'S GREAT MINES FORM VAST COMBINATION

EXPLOITATION OF RICH VIRGIN GROUND

Duke Mayhem Certainly Built Wisely When He Brought Together so Many Valuable Properties of Such Wonderful Producing Capacity

MANY years ago Tuscarora was synonymous with all that was great and good in mining; thousands of people were happy, because they were making money, and while it is true that much the greater number of them were wage-earners they were making an honest living for their families and were entirely comfortable. The old time 24-passenger covered coach came in every day from the railroad loaded with passengers, the hotels were crowded; stores supplied the wants of the thrifty people, and the echo of the hammer as it played upon the drill, was music to the investor for it meant per cent on the investment. Every human being within miles of Tuscarora was happy for gold flowed out as freely as it came in, and that was indeed with a lavish hand.

Prospects, with only limited development, sold for fabulous sums, and there was no limit to silver or gold. For fourteen years this condition prevailed, then came the curse of the demoralization of silver and everything in its wake was blighted as though by the lightning's bolt. In this land which had been a region of milk and honey, for there had been no suffering, no heartaches, no tramping through the country seeking work, and the investment field was beyond compare.

Yet hoping against hope, with a confidence born of experience and education, with a stubbornness against which neither time nor adversity could prevail—great in their very weakness—they have lived on and on, sure as the rising of the morning's sun that their silver would again have its own, and constantly dripping from the sack of the great mine of Tuscarora. Year after year the party was located, he pined for millions of dollars of gold and the other thousands of silver between 75 and 79 is the percent out of this remarkable group in fourteen years, and the one better have never been scratched over for the years and everybody was busy but deepest workings in the district is a shaft 800 feet vertical down on the Grand Prize, and this great property alone paid a dividend of 600 cents per share per month for many years on a capitalization of 100,000 shares.

Belle Isle and Navajo paid 25 cents per share per month for many years on a 100,000 share capitalization. Both properties were worked through the Navajo shaft, hence the output was reported together.

Nevada Queen and Commonwealth paid 20 cents per share per month for years on a 100,000 capitalization.

North Belle Isle also paid 20 cents per share per month for many years on a capitalization of 100,000 shares.

Dexter also was a great producer and helped to make the financial as well as the romantic history of Tuscarora district. It is really the most celebrated property in many ways. The Dexter was positively consigned to bankruptcy, for it was bought by John Hubbard, who killed Larry Lyman in '77 in the proposition and under one management old Idaho saloon and Hubbard held it for a long time, but never even struck a pick in the ground. Later Hubbard gave John Sutcliffe a half interest and the latter worked the property to a depth of 65 feet by going down on a ladder, filling his bucket, and then climbed to the surface to hold it, and it was a common occurrence for the attendants to great depths on the lead, but when they were attending school close by, to come over and help raise the buckets of one in sympathy with old John Sutcliffe.

W. J. Upton and Charles McMaster

THE mines of Tuscarora district have a record output of $30,000,000 in fourteen years and Duke Mahem has combined all of the old producers and a vast mineral area of virgin territory into one gigantic enterprise and he is now in the east consummating the deal and it is probable that the driving down of four deep shafts will be only a minor part of the contemplated exhaustive exploitation in this wonderful field.

bought out Hubbard's half, by agreement to give Hubbard $2 each and every day to keep drunk on as long as he lived, and, as a fact, they honestly fulfilled the agreement for several years until Hubbard died and he died as he had lived, drunk with his boots on.

Prior to this, however, Sutcliffe borrowed a small amount of money from Upton and McMaster to put in a three-stamp mill, but just about the time it was completed, the latter people seized the property for the loan and the further proceedings interests in Sutcliffe no more.

Upton and McMaster worked the property for several years, but were always in great fear of the Hubbard heirs in the east, and hence to keep the community quiet and friendly, they scattered around where it would do the most good, a large number of fifty-share blocks of Dexter stock, which paid a monthly dividend of 20 cents per share. And when the Boston heirs would send out a representative he was extremely well cared for kept gloriously drunk, given $1,000 or $15,000, to steady his nerves, and he at least was satisfied.

There was quite a rivalry among the workmen as to who could stand the most, by Upton and McMaster were stealing from the heirs and they could not kick at the employees who stole from them. At one time A. V. Lancaster and Len Meigs, who were stockholders, were at the mill to guard the bullion and it was the custom for one of them to be sitting on the bullion chest at all times. However during the temporary absence of "Lancaster" on the upper floor of the mill, someone slipped through the large water wheel which ran the mill, and stole all the bullion in the box, together with a goodly sack of wet mud, and this was going just a little too strong so they tracked the thief to the silver mine, the rising of the morning's sun that their silver would again have its own, and constantly dripping from the sack of the great mine of Tuscarora. Year after year the party was located, he pined for millions of dollars of gold and the other thousands of silver between 75 and 79 is the percent out of this remarkable group in fourteen years, and the one better have never been scratched over for the years and everybody was busy but deepest workings in the district is a shaft 800 feet vertical down on the Grand Prize, and this great property alone paid a dividend of 600 cents per share per month for many years on a capitalization of 100,000 shares.

RICH GOLDFIELD IN SOUTHERN COUNTRY

Reports Are Very Flattering from the Mining Regions Around Sodaville, Aurora, Bodie and Masonic in the South

Many men are giving the section around Goldfield, Aurora and Masonic much attention these days and the result of the extensive exploration being advanced are being watched with a deal of interest for the future of that region is a marked degree of dependent thereon.

C. L. Garrison, a mining man of extensive experience, arrived in Reno yesterday and yesterday morning the city his home. Mr. Garrison has visited the districts mentioned and is enthusiastic as to the future of the section. He has one section of the district, however, in the fact that the property is generally new, and is high and not warranted by the conditions. The section is particularly rich in gold, and it is believed that the future of the section will be a marked degree of dependent thereon.

CHALLENGES ANY FOOTBALL TEAM

Elk Boys of This City Wish to Meet Any Amateur Aggregation on the Gridiron

An open challenge has been issued by the Elk football team of this city to any academic team in the state for a game to be played at any time and at any place.

The team must not contain any professional players. This is the only restriction. All communications regarding a game should be addressed to F. L. Behler, Sparks, Nevada.

The Elk team is composed of young men of this city and was organized this season. Some of the players never saw a football game until this year. Without the services of a coach and being unable to practice but a short time each evening the team has developed rapidly and is able to play a very strong game.

New suits were purchased for the team this year and have only been used once. The team has played but two games this year, one with the Reno high school and one with Atkinson's business college. The manager means to reorganize the team next year and secure games with the different high schools of the state.

NEW DIRECTORY BEING COMPILED

Will Be a Book Containing Much Valuable Information to Residents This City

Work on the new city directory which is being published by Barnhart & Durley of Reno is nearing completion and it is expected to place the book before the public some time next week.

The new directory, as far as completed shows Sparks to be a city of about 2000 inhabitants. The population at the last census was about 500. From this it will be seen that Sparks has been a city of very rapid growth.

The new directory will contain the names of all the streets and their location in the city. This will be great convenience for the residents, as it may safely be said that half the people of the city are not aware of the name of the street on which they reside.

It has also developed that the population of Sparks is in the proportion of one man for every five women and children, while in other cities the proportion is usually reversed.

Death of Former Wadsworthite
Word has been received from Los Angeles of the death of Mrs. E. A. Lewis at that city on November 28. Mrs. Lewis is quite well known to the people of Sparks, having resided at Wadsworth for a number of years.

Happenings at State University

Congress Club Is Reorganized

Steps Taken By Members to Arouse Interests in Debating Among Students

At a meeting last Wednesday evening, called for that purpose, the Congress club of the university decided to change the constitution of that club and if it is deemed advisable by the committee to change the name also. Many suggestions were offered to the committee as to the changes needed to make this society—which is the only debating society on the hill—a success.

There are more students interested in debating this year than ever before in the history of the university and the prospects for a very strong debating team this year are very bright. The committee appointed consists of men who have had considerable experience in debating and the plan which they adopt will, without doubt, meet with the approval of all those who are interested in the club. One thing which the committee intends doing is to cut out all "ringers," that is, to allow no one to become a member who will not take an active part in all the activities of the club.

It is probable that the plan which will be adopted by the committee will be to make some logical division of the club to keep up interest and establish a rivalry which will lead to better work being done by all the members. The next regular meeting of the club will be held early in January, and the plans drawn up by the committee, which consists of J. M. Ezell, J. D. Scott and L. Goldstein, will be adopted.

In Time of Peace

In the first months of the Russian-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by all druggists.

Frozen Pond Attracts Many

Much Pleasure to Skaters

In the last few days many students and town people have been enjoying themselves skating on the pond back of Manzanita hall. The ice, though a little rough, seems to suit the merry crowd all right and their shouts may be heard from early morning till late at night. The ring of their skates and sound of their joyous laughter has helped many fair coeds and cadets to forget their homesickness for the time being and given them courage to face the rest of the vacation.

The students plan to flood the pond and allow no one on the ice until it is as smooth and solid as it can be. There were many good skaters on the ice today and the spectators were treated to some very fancy skating. There was also the usual quota of beginners and they furnished the comedy part of the program, which was better received by the crowd than the fancy tricks.

New Walk for Hall Co-eds

Trestle Work Now Being Constructed to Extend From Girls' Dormitory to Experiment Station

At last the work of constructing the new walk from Manzanita hall to the campus has been started. It is expected to have the work completed some time next week.

The walk will extend from Manzanita hall to the experiment station, where it will connect with the cement walk.

The new walk will be constructed of boards and will be about four feet in width. It will have a railing on each side to prevent the co-eds from falling to the ground, which will be many feet below for the entire distance of the walk.

When completed the walk will fill a long needed necessity. During the winter it is almost impossible for the girls to get to and from Manzanita hall for their classes on account of the mud. The walk now in use is in a very dilapidated condition and the boards of which it is constructed are often carried out into the pond by the fierce winds which blow in that vicinity. With the completion of the new walk all will be changed and the co-eds will be enabled to travel to and from their classes quite conveniently.

The walk from the new dining hall to Lincoln hall has not yet been started, but the work will begin in a short time.

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Than of All Others Put Together

Mr. Thos. George, a merchant at Mt. Pleasant, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine, as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by all druggists.

Are Installing New Furnaces

The Heating Systems of Manzanita and Lincoln Halls Being Greatly Improved

Improvements are being made in the heating systems of Manzanita and Lincoln halls. New furnaces are being put in. They are much larger than those which have been in use for so many years, and are capable of heating the building in a very satisfactory manner.

The heating system will remain the same as before, that is, the buildings will be heated with hot water. In the summer it is planned to change the system and install steam heaters and perhaps put in oil burning furnaces.

The new furnace in Manzanita hall has already been installed. The new furnace is much larger than the old one and heats the building uniformly throughout.

In Lincoln hall the new furnace is now being installed. It exceeds the one formerly in use very much in size and is expected to heat the entire building so that every room will be comfortably warm at all times.

The heating systems in both dormitories have long been very unsatisfactory and the change will be heralded with much satisfaction on the part of the students residing there. This has been the case, especially in Lincoln hall. The principal fault seems to have been the size of the furnace, which was entirely too small for heating a building the size of the hall. In many of the rooms the heaters would freeze and burst during the winter. With the new furnace it is thought that all the rooms in the building will be heated uniformly throughout.

Woodmen Elect Officers

The Woodmen of the World held a well attended meeting Friday evening. Three candidates were initiated and the following officers were elected: M. E. Hamilton, C. C.; John S. Orr, Adv. Lieut.; J. W. German, banker; E. A. Williams, clerk; Don Young, secretary; L. Westfall, watchman; E. G. Wilson, sentry; Dr. C. F. Moore, manager; Drs. Hershiser and O'Neal were recommended as physicians of the camp. After which all repaired to the banquet hall and enjoyed an inviting spread.

Croup
A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for immediate use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears. For sale by all druggists.

Yesterday was calendar and law and motion day in the district court. The following cases were set:

M. G. Myrtle against the Nevada-California and Oregon railroad, was continued until Monday afternoon, December 4th, at 1:30; N. H. West vs. Thomas Hill, set for Tuesday, Jan. 2, 1906; H. J. Clute vs. Thomas Michael will come up Thursday, December 21; James Heasley vs. Robert Shirley, defendant, has 10 days to file amended and supplemental answer. Mrs. Ann Murphy vs. H. J. Duncan, case was set for January 4th; Clara Newman vs. N. Newman, divorce suit will be heard Thursday, Jan. 4th, as will the two divorce suits of Emma Bernard vs. Charles W. Barnard and Lizzie Schlenz and John H. Schlenz. The suit of H. F. Kittredge against Annie May Kittredge will be heard Friday, January 5th; P. A. McCarran vs. William Wilson, default entered and case set for Dec. 5th; J. E. Wilite vs. W. M. Jolnek set for Jan. 8th; J. P. Donevan vs. Ophelia Donovan, Monday, Dec. 4th.

In the matter of the guardianship of J. Allen Jones the hearing of the petition for the sale of real and personal property was held, and the case set for adjournment Monday, December 4.

In the matter of the estate of Robert Eagan (Pigley), the administration was made summary.

In the matter of the estate of James Santusky, it was ordered that the administration of the estate should be made summary and it was further ordered that the homestead be set apart for the widow.

The petition of Amelia D. Williams for letters of administration on the estate of J. B. Williams who died in January, 1899, was granted. The deceased, whose estate is just being settled, was auditor of Washoe county for nearly twenty years.

The petition of Ellen Lamotti for letters of administration in the estate of her deceased husband was granted.

Public administrator John T. Read was granted letters of administration in the estate of H. Lindeman.

The administration of the estate of Mrs. Mary Fairchild will come up Monday, December 4.

In the criminal proceedings of the state against Abe Meyers, who was arrested last July on a charge of vagrancy and was convicted in the police court, the case was dismissed and Meyers's bondsmen released.

CUPID PLAYING WITH MANHEIM

Reno's Candy King to be Hero of a Love Farce by Wheel-
men Tomorrow

Manheim, the candy king, engaged! Think of it, you prospective father-in-laws of Reno! In real life Mr. Manheim is going to appear on the stage at the Grand theater tomorrow evening and the night after. It did not require much urging for the young man to agree to take part in the program. "I'll do anything—yes, even go on the stage for the wheelmen," he said and the result will be a treat for the hundreds who are friends of the wheelmen and know Manheim. He is to take a part in a farce which lasts a portion of one act written by Al Pape the music being furnished by "Ragtime" Hayes. It is entitled "What Do You Manheim's Love and Prospective Father-in-law?" The title is a bit long, but the farce is said to be much more brief, but a laugh from start to finish.

This by no means is all of the bit that is to be presented by the wheelmen. There will be living pictures, stunts, dancing and a multitude of other features, and all by local talent. You will miss a treat if you fail to attend and you had better get your seat early for the house will be crowded.

THE GAY PARISIANS
THURSDAY NIGHT

The patrons of the Mc Kissick opera, next Thursday, can expect something very fine for the Parisian Belles. A brand new burlesque show, with everything that goes to make one of these shows a success is the attraction. The show is under the personal direction of Mr. John Greaves, the well known New York manager, and producer who has spent considerable time in securing a chorus of beautiful women, not only for their beautiful faces and form, but for their ability as singers. Among those secured are Clara, one of the handsomest women in the burlesque stage. The company will be found to be an exceptionally large one, 18 full strength being displayed in the two musical comedies, entitled "The Sultan's Whisker" and "The Girl From Manila." Aside from the burlesque an also including six vaudeville acts will be offered.

NAMES BETTER THAN NUMBERS

Citizens of Nevada Enter Protest Against Action Tending to Favor Catalogue Houses

The people of Nevada are to enter a protest against the legislation favored by the postmaster general providing that persons living in rural districts receive their mail, addressed by number only, instead of by name. They feel that the proposed legislation is a scheme of the big mail order stores of the east to insure delivery of their catalogues and letters. William Levy, of the Palace dry goods store, was circulating the petition in Reno yesterday. The petition, together with the signatures he obtained is as follows:

To the Postmaster General, Washington, D. C.: Sir—We, the undersigned petitioners in the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, being informed that you are about to number consecutively all boxes on rural free delivery routes, do hereby request that you do not carry into effect this proposed plan. We are free American citizens and prefer to be addressed by our names

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Jerome Scores New York's Supreme Court

WILLIAM TRAVERS JEROME, who has just been re-elected district attorney of New York by a remarkable majority, considering that he ran as an independent candidate opposed by all party organizations and the machine, whose boasted power he floated in every speech he made during the campaign, has just made a speech before a meeting of representative citizens that "out Herods" any of his previous efforts in this line. As usual his theme was the corruption that exists in every department of the body politic and in the course of his remarks he took occasion to score the highest tribunal of the State of New York in the following forcible language:

"I was educated to be a lawyer and had instilled in me a desire to reverence the bench. And now, gentlemen, I have no reverence—I have not even everyday common respect—for the judges of the supreme court of this department.

"The young man who raises his voice in open protest against the things that are every day making for the present degradation of the supreme court bench in this department is denounced as a crank by those very members of the bar who should do most to remedy the prevailing state of affairs. Even those who lead the bar dodge the issue and say: 'We have natural interests intrusted to our care and we cannot, dare not, jeopardize them.'

"When a judge of the supreme court has to go to Charley Murphy, a common bartender, and plead to be elevated to a position to pass on our lives, our liberties and our property, it is something for the bar to think about."

Charles Murphy is the leader of Tammany Hall and the "boss" of New York City. In New York, as everywhere else, where the machine is in control of the political patronage, the "boss" absolutely dictates who shall compose the supreme court as well as other offices and it is against this deadly danger to our liberties that the scorching remarks of Mr. Jerome were directed. It is needless to say that his remarks will find an echoing sentiment in the breast of every loyal American.

The Crusade Against Football

ABOUT this time every year there comes an outcry and protest against the game of football. This season is no exception, but now the agitation seems to have more force than usual. Indeed, so strong has it become that Columbia College has practically decided to prohibit the game entirely. Nearly all of the western colleges have expressed themselves through their faculties as either opposing the further continuance of the inter-collegiate games or demanding such changes in the rules as will eliminate the brutal features of the game.

As now played the game is certainly worse than prizefighting if considered from the viewpoint of danger to life and limb of those who participate. It can be wondered at, in view of the number of fatalities and permanent physical injuries that are of annual recurrence, that parents are desirous of protecting their sons and are joining in the protest against further continuance of the game as a part of college life.

There can be no question that the absolute prohibition of the game will have a serious effect on that college spirit of emulation that is so necessary a part of the college life of today. It would seem that there might be found some middle ground that would not be so drastic, such as a revision of the rules and the prohibition of the practices now so prevalent of hiring professional players under the thin disguise of making them students who are never expected to graduate or even stand an entrance examination.

Active young fellows are naturally appealed to by a game that requires strength as well as skill, and it would seem that football could be played in such a way as to eliminate the brutal and dangerous features and still permit it to be an interesting game.

Those who play the game should make an effort to meet public sentiment upon this question, and it could be very easily done by adopting the original Rugby instead of continuing the revised version of the game which is in such general use in this country.

Such a change would still leave the game a manly and interesting one, but there would not be quite so much risk to life and limb.

SECRETARY ROOT has issued orders reforming the diplomatic and consular service by requiring a knowledge of at least one foreign language as a qualification for appointment as secretary of legation. Judging from some of the published reports of the service it might not be a bad idea to have a knowledge of the English language included in the requirements.

THE man who held a pair of jacks and a pair of eights in a recent poker game at Pittsburg would doubtless give assent to the accuracy of the superstition that calls such a combination "the dead man's hand," only that he is unfortunately in the usual position of the dead man—unable to speak.

ONE defender of John D. Rockefeller excuses the oil king on the ground that he robbed the well-to-do rather than the poor. Yes, he robbed the rich as long as there were any rich that he could rob, but when he socks the price of oil a point or two every now and then, who does he hit—the rich or the poor?

In Men's Fine Overcoats

TO BEGIN WITH—There are no arbitrary standards or laws for correct coats.

CUSTOM—The habit and practice of men who give much thought and careful attention to the strict proprieties of clothes; this is the chief guide.

THE THINGS—Which such men agree on, without any of the little extra "fads"—these are correct styles.

COMMON SENSE—Helps a good deal. The average man doesn't attempt to make the style. All he asks to know is what is correct; and somebody ought to tell him.

We don't intend to pose as law makers in the matter; we can tell you what is the custom of careful dressers as to propriety in dress; you will have to supply your own common sense.

VAN DUZER DOES NOT WANT A THIRD TERM

FAITHFUL WORK AS PUBLIC SERVANT NEARING END

Nevada's Representative Announces That After Fifteen Years' Service for the State Will Withdraw From Congress at the Expiration of His Term

TO THE PEOPLE of the state of Nevada, my party and my friends:

To the People of the State of Nevada: On March 4th, 1907, at the expiration of the 55th congress, I will have served the people of the State of Nevada both by appointment and election over fifteen consecutive years. Seven years as State Land Agent resident at Washington, D. C., appointed by the governor of the state; two years as district attorney of Humboldt county; two years as member of the legislature from Humboldt county; and four years as member of congress.

My record during these fifteen years of public service is an open book and a matter of state history. I am deeply appreciative and profoundly grateful to the people of the state of Nevada for the honors they have conferred upon me. During these fifteen years I have given all my time and energy and ability to the service of my state. Fifteen years of the prime of my life have been gladly devoted to Nevada. At the end of my public service, I will retire absolutely a poor man. It is my proud satisfaction that I have at all times insistently and consistently represented the people and their interests. I have fought the battle of the masses and during the entire time have been free and independent, controlled neither by bosses or influenced by corporations.

Had I seen fit to desert the people and have allied myself with a corporate interest or the representatives of corporate interests, or had I seen fit to use a public trust for private gain or subordinated my official position for the advancement of private enterprises, I could have reaped large financial gain, and been today one of the highly respected financial powers of Nevada. I am a poor man, and I am proud of my poverty. It is my proud boast that I have never betrayed a faithful constituency, and that alone is a sufficient heritage of honor to leave my family.

Thanking the people of Nevada for the great confidence they have reposed in me, in my honesty and energy, with the warmest assurances of regard for my party and a sincere hope of its continued supremacy in state affairs, with tender feelings of appreciation to my many faithful and loyal friends, I beg to announce to the people, to my party, and to my friends, that I am not again a candidate for congress.

This announcement is not made with any belief that I am entitled to another nomination or that I have any right to assume that I would be so honored, but it is made in order that any possible consideration of my candidacy may not embarrass my party in the selection of some successful candidate to succeed me in congress. This announcement is made without consultation with my party or its

Thanking the people of Nevada for the great confidence they have reposed in me, in my honesty and energy, with the warmest assurances of regard for my party and a sincere hope of its continued supremacy in state affairs, with tender feelings of appreciation to my many faithful and loyal friends, I beg to announce to the people, to my party, and to my friends, that I am not again a candidate for Congress.

Clarence D. Van Duzer

leaders.

During the 55th congress, I intend to maintain an absolutely fearless and independent attitude, supporting measures, not men, serving principle, not party, fighting for the people's rights and for reform independent of party affiliations. Feeling that my party and my friends are entitled to this announcement at this time, and feeling that the course which I intend to pursue should not be handicapped in any way or influenced by any consideration of future congressional preferment and that I may be in a position where I can be neither influenced by hope of reward or fear of punishment, I state with sincerity and determination, that under no circumstances shall I again seek or accept a nomination for congress. I did not seek the nomination last year. I steadfastly refused it. I was however nominated and elected under circumstances as highly gratifying.

This announcement is not made because of any change of political faith. For I am still a staunch Democrat and have lived to see the principles of reform, good government and honest democracy advocated by us in 1896 and subsequent years emphatically endorsed by the opposition and generally and generously approved by a majority of the people.

Neither is this announcement to be construed that I am withdrawing from all participation in politics. I intend as a private citizen to take an earnest and active interest in politics in Nevada. Never in the history of the state was there greater need for a patriotic participation of her citizens in politics than now.

We are entering upon a new era in Nevada, a new development, a new growth, a new population. Wealth is once again turning the eyes of commerce to us. Greatest care should now be exercised by her citizenship. There are many questions of vital importance to be considered. There is today to be a referendum to rivet upon Nevada the chains of corporate influence, at a time when our people are prosperous, intelligent and happy. One future prosperity and contentment is not so much a matter of Federal legislation as of state legislation.

Above all other questions and paramount to every issue in Nevada is the railroad rate question. President Roosevelt courageously made this question a living, dominant issue, and strong lines suggested by President Roosevelt, but probably modified by pro railroad influence in the United States Senate, a rate bill will be passed. At best, it will not give immediate relief to Nevada, but will provide methods by which we can secure some relief. Our full and adequate remedy will be in state legislation to supplement federal enactment. This question should be studied by Nevada citizens. It is now time to act. The issue has been framed. Today Tonopah, Goldfield and Bullfrog typifying our mineral industry, have their output limited, and their growth retarded, because of an unlawful combination between the railroads and smelter trust. Every miner has his opportunity for success circumscribed by this combination. The only industry in the world in which there has not been a monopoly and which offers equal opportunity to the millionaire and the poor man alike, is the mining industry. We are estopped from shipping our low grade ores by excessive rates, and denied smelter facilities because of railroad discrimination.

To the agricultural communities such as Carson Valley, Mason Valley, the Churchill and Humboldt areas, present railroad rates are prohibitive of sugar beet factories, woolen mills, or tanneries for hides. The miner, the farmer, the merchant, the stockman, the producer and the shipper, and the citizens who love Nevada, her prosperity and future above selfish railroad favors by way of special privileges and railroad passes, must awaken to our present danger.

The highest ideal of Christian American citizenship is to serve your God and your family first, then your state and then your party. I owe a duty to my family, and while yet young and vigorous, I feel that I must devote the years to come to business life along successful and conservative lines. With a closer identification with the many opportunities offered in Nevada which I may as a private citizen take advantage of, but which as a public servant are denied to me by a keen sense of honor and propriety.

I believe the people of Nevada who have so long honored me, that I will take up the fight on the railroad question in Nevada while in congress and afterwards as a private citizen in the state, and wage the battle insistently until we have a terminal point in Nevada and have reduced freights and fares to a just and reasonable basis, enabling Nevada to enjoy the same advantages which have made her sister States distributing centers and factory centers, giving to the farmer, the stockman, the merchant and the miner a fair share of profit and an opportunity to live and prosper.

I am the obedient servant of the State of Nevada.

BAR ASSOCIATION TO GIVE ANNUAL BANQUET

A meeting was held last night at the offices of Attorney W. A. Massey, of the Reno Bar Association to consider, among other things, the question of the second annual banquet.

It was unanimously decided that the affair should be held and the date was set for December 29.

The following committees were appointed by President Massey:

H. R. Cook, E. L. Williams and William S. Wall, who were delegated to visit those few members who found it impossible to be at last night's meeting; the committee on invitations is composed of Albert D. Ayers, W. B. Craig and A. E. Cheney; program committee, C. R. Lewers, S. Summersfield and P. N. Packard; committee on arrangements, E. R. Dodge, W. H. A. Pfeiffer and J. T. Boyd.

After the appointment of the committees a few minor business details were attended to and the meeting adjourned.

Faithful Friends Taken Ill

Mrs. M. L. Holland, at whose residence the late Mayor O'Connor made his home for a number of years, and who assisted in nursing the good man during his last illness, is now confined to her bed suffering from nervous prostration. Yesterday her condition had not improved. Mrs. Petrie, who assisted in nursing the sick man, is also ill. She is suffering from pneumonia.

ELKS WILL CALL ROLL OF ABSENT MEMBERS

Another anniversary commemoration of the absent brothers of Elks will be held this afternoon at Elks' home. With every year these memorial services grow in significance to the Elks and the Elks are made stronger as the chain becomes longer which embraces the living members to the memory of the departed.

The recent death of three of their active members, one of whom died only yesterday, makes more poignant the memorial services to be held today. The names of W. L. Mitchell, D. W. O'Connor and D. M. Dyer will be read this afternoon, but no mortal can shall bear the response.

Mining Land To Be Opened

An area of over 10,000 acres lying in this state between Lida and Ash Meadows is about to be surveyed by the government. An appropriation of $15,000 is set aside for the survey. This country, long considered nothing better than desert land, has been demonstrated to be rich in mineral and the survey is to be made in order that it may be opened up to prospectors. Surveyor General Kyle has already invited the attention of the public to the enterprise and men will soon be at work surveying the land.

Badly Hurt at Gymnasium

Alphonse Nelson sustained a painful, though not serious, injury Friday afternoon while wrestling at the Wheelmen's club. He was using the punching bag and in some manner ran against one of the wire supports of the apparatus. His lip was badly cut. It was found necessary to call in medical aid to attend the injured

MIDWAY DECLARES A FIVE-CENT DIVIDEND

Special to the Journal.
TONOPAH, Dec. 2.—The annual meeting of the directors of the Midway Mining Company of this place was held today. The first dividend of the company will amount to 5 cents a share, and is made payable on January 1.

The meeting was an interesting one, the reports of the officers showing the property to be in an excellent condition with a bright outlook. Confidence in the old officers was expressed by re-electing all of them.

School Teachers Visit Reno

Among the many visitors to Reno over the Thanksgiving season were many school teachers who spent their short vacation here.

Miss Mary Baron, vice-principal of the Winnemucca high school, spent the day in town and returns home today.

Miss Rebecca Brannan of the Wadsworth school department, and Miss Louise Sweeney from Carson City were also here. Miss Sweeney is a sister of the attorney general of the state, and returns to Carson today.

John Bruner's Electric Sign

The John Bruner furniture store is attracting much attention by reason of the artistic electric display recently placed above the big store. The letters of the firm name blaze brightly against the sky and illuminate the street. The device is an ornament as well as an advertisement.
